

Section 59 Order

The Board of Directors hereby orders that:

- where more than 24 months has elapsed from the date of accident,
- a worker has received temporary disability benefits during that period,
- a permanent clinical impairment or permanent work restrictions have not been determined,
- but a degree of permanence is likely,

such a worker is entitled to receive adjustments under section 59 of the Workers' Compensation Act in respect of periodic compensation paid after the 24th month.

Further, under the authority of section 157 of the WCA, this Order shall have retroactive application to the extent required to give effect to such adjustments made to periodic compensation prior to the date of this Order.
