

She would be lost without you.

In 2010, 136 Alberta workers died from workplace injury and disease. Honour their memory; employers and workers can make a difference by working together to keep each other safe everyday.

