APPLICATION 6: TRAINING-ON-THE-JOB PROGRAMS

1. What is the purpose of training-on-the-job programs?

The purpose of training-on-the-job programs is to provide workers, who are not able to return to pre-accident employment due to compensable work restrictions, with skill development and work experience.

2. Who is eligible for training-on-the-job programs?

Injured workers are eligible for the program if:

- they are medically able to return to work,
- they cannot return to the pre-accident occupation due to compensable work restrictions,
- the date-of-accident employer cannot provide suitable modified or alternative employment, and
- they require training to obtain suitable employment as part of the return-to-work plan.

3. Who pays for training-on-the-job programs?

The cost of training-on-the-job programs is shared between WCB and the training employer.

4. What if a worker is injured during the training-on-the-job program?

Workers are covered if they are injured or aggravate the previous injury during the training-on-the-job program.

WCB does not charge the training employer's account if the worker is injured or aggravates a previous injury during the training-on-the-job program. Instead, the costs of injuries sustained during training-on-the-job programs are charged to the industry (see Policy 05-02, Cost Relief).

5. When is this policy application effective?

This policy application (Application 6 – Training-on-the-Job Programs) is effective September 1, 2018, except when noted otherwise in a specific policy section(s).
